KAISER PERMANENTE COMMEMORATES WORLD AIDS DAY
Awards more than $350,000 in Southern California grants for HIV/AIDS prevention and care

LIST OF 35 GRANTS IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER BY AREA:

- In Anaheim, Orange County grant funding goes to AIDS Services Foundation Orange County; Laguna Beach Community Clinic; and Shanti Orange County.

- In Baldwin Park, grant recipients include AltaMed Health Services Corporation; and East Valley Community Health Center.

- In Downey, grants were presented to Project Angel Food; and Whittier Rio Hondo AIDS Project.

- Kaiser Permanente’s Medical Center in Fontana awarded grants to the Valley Community Clinic; and the Ventura County Rainbow Alliance.

- In Kern, Kaiser Permanente’s grant funding goes to the Clinica Sierra Vista.

- In Los Angeles, Kaiser Permanente’s grants go to AIDS Research Alliance; AIDS Service Center; Alliance for Housing and Healing; and Project Angel Food.

- In the San Fernando Valley, Panorama City Medical Center’s grant funding goes to The Catalyst Foundation.

- In Riverside, Kaiser Permanente’s grant is awarded to AIDS Assistance Program; and the Foothill AIDS Project.

- The Kaiser Permanente’s San Diego Medical Center grants go to: Christie’s Place, Inc., County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency; Mama’s Kitchen; San Diego Youth Services; and Vista Community Clinic.

- Kaiser Permanente’s grant funding in the South Bay goes to: AIDS Project Los Angeles, Inc., South Bay Family Healthcare Center; and the St. Mary Medical Center Foundation.

- The Southern California Region grant was awarded to the Desert AIDS Project (Palm Springs, Indio and Cathedral City).

- In West Los Angeles, grant funding has been provided to the Los Angeles Jewish AIDS Services; Minority AIDS Project; People Assisting the Homeless; Project Angel Food; Serra Ancillary Care Corporation; and Being Alive - People with HIV/AIDS.

- Kaiser Permanente’s Woodland Hills Medical Center provided funding to: Project Angel Food; Valley Community Clinic and Ventura County Rainbow Alliance.

# #